

CONNECTION STEMS

WonderHere[?]
↓

Materials:

- Fiction book of choice

Directions:

Prep: Print out the connection stems with color or without color. Cut the slips apart and fold them in half. Place them in a bag or bowl.

1. Read your fiction book of choice.
2. Without looking, grab a slip of paper and complete the sentence.
3. Continue until all slips of papers have been used.

Text to Self – When I read _____, it reminded me of ...

Text to Self – If _____ happened to me, I would ...

Text to Self – I am like the character _____ because...

Text to Self – When I picture this text, I visualize _____ from my life.

Text to Text – This reminds me of the book _____ because...

Text to Text – I read another book called _____ that had a similar topic.

Text to Text – The character _____ is similar/different to _____ from another book because...

Text to World – This reminds me of the real world because...

Text to World – This text is different than the real world because...

Text to World – This picture reminds me of _____ in the real world.

Text to Self – When I read _____, it reminded me of ...

Text to Self – If _____ happened to me, I would ...

Text to Self – I am like the character _____ because...

Text to Self – When I picture this text, I visualize _____ from my life.

Text to Text – This reminds me of the book _____ because...

Text to Text – I read another book called _____ that had a similar topic.

Text to Text – The character _____ is similar/different to _____ from another book because...

Text to World – This reminds me of the real world because...

Text to World – This text is different than the real world because...

Text to World – This picture reminds me of _____ in the real world.